Guess What...

Most New Year's Eve fun facts also involve New Year's Day and traditions that occur close to midnight. Here are a few...

Black-eyed peas (usually with ham) are often consumed & are thought to bring good fortune in cultures around the world, not just in the U.S.

Other foods that are eaten on New Year's Eve are cabbage because the leaves represent prosperity. In Asian cultures, rice is a hearty and lucky staple that is eaten around midnight to signify the coming year of fortune.
